

Literary Analysis Essay Topic:

Author:

Reader 1: (name)

Label the author's Thesis Statement:

What particularly interested you in the essay?

On a scale of 1 to 5,
How strong is this author's analysis?

1 2 3 4 5

Did the author incorporate evidence, quotations, and examples? YES / NO

What could the author add to or change in this analysis to better explore the topic?
(Complete sentences)

Reader 2: (name)

Label the author's Thesis Statement:

What particularly interested you in the essay?

On a scale of 1 to 5,
How strong is this author's analysis?

1 2 3 4 5

Did the author incorporate evidence, quotations, and examples? YES / NO

What could the author add to or change in this analysis to better explore the topic?
(Complete sentences)

Reader 3: (name)

Label the author's Thesis Statement:

What particularly interested you in the essay?

On a scale of 1 to 5,
How strong is this author's analysis?

1 2 3 4 5

Did the author incorporate evidence, quotations, and examples? YES / NO

What could the author add to or change in this analysis to better explore the topic?
(Complete sentences)

Reader 4: (name)

Label the author's Thesis Statement:

What particularly interested you in the essay?

On a scale of 1 to 5,
How strong is this author's analysis?

1 2 3 4 5

Did the author incorporate evidence, quotations, and examples? YES / NO

What could the author add to or change in this analysis to better explore the topic?
(Complete sentences)